HOSPITAL HAS BEEN SUGGESTED AS A MEMORIAL

Committees Named by City Council and Chamber of Commerce to Hold Meeting With County Committee Next Wednesday Evening.

Chairman R. C. Owens, of the special committee of councilmen named by Mayor Russell to consider some fitting memorial for the Maysville and Mason county men who have fallen on French battle fields and who have served in the great war, has called a meeting of his committee to meet with the Chamber of Commerce committee and a committee from the County Fiscal Court, named for the same purpose, on next Wednesday evening for their first consultation.

Several forms for this proposed memorial to take have been suggested from several sources. It was first thought that a shaft of marble should be erected in the center of the city bearing the names of the Maysville and Mason county heroes. At the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet it was suggested that the memorial take the form of a club room for the men and last night at a meeting of the directors of the Emergency hospital, it was suggested that it take the form of a county and city hospital.

It was proposed that a large sum be raised for the erection and endowment of such a hospital which would serve the citizens of Maysville and Mason county free if necessary so that all could be assured of hospital attention.

All of these suggestions will be considered at the various meetings of the joint committees and some definite form of memorial will be decided upon before long.

PROPOSITION FOR LOCAL TRAIN STOPS TAKEN UP

Mr. W. W. Wikoff, local agent of the C. & O., at the request of a number of local farmers and tobacco men through the Chamber of Commerce, has taken up the matter of again establishing local stops at Market and Poplar streets with District Superintendent Taylor. It is more than likely that an answer will be received from Mr. Taylor within a few days.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WILL BE ORGANIZED IN HIGH SCHOOL

Every Student in the Maysville High School is Anxious to Become a Member of Junior Red Cross.

An expression from the students of the Maysville High School this morning at chorus practice indicates that every student will enroll in the Junior Red Cross many paying the senior fee of one dollar a year. This would place the Maysville High School on a one hundred per cent. basis.

Mason county has been in need of a Junior Red Cross organization and the Maysville High School is a very fitting place for the organization to begin.

Such an organization will be of great assistance to the Senior Red Cross and Chairman W. D. Cochran in the Christmas Roll Call Drive beginning next Monday and lasting through the entire week.

Plans for the organization of the Junior Red Cross will be pushed and it is expected that the organization may be completed and ready for active service by next Monday.

FOR SALE

320 acres, East Fork River Valley, 6 miles from Batavia; 160 acres corn, wheat and tobacco land; 160 acres blue-grass pasture, with fine, never-failing springs, is the way the owner has arranged it; 80 acres first bottom, 80 acres second bottom, 160 acres side hill sloping to low ground, designed for permanent pasturage; 80 per cent of all the farm will grow corn, wheat and fine tobacco, but owner wants bluegrass to remain to balance the farm for stock, grain and tobacco; old ground tobacco last year average over 36c on market, some of it yielding over $500 per acre; this year's crop is very fine; the profit in tobacco is made in raising tobacco of finest quality; 18-500 lbs. has been grown on 10 acres; corn will yield from 60 to 90 bu; wheat this year averaged over 27 bu and hay over 2 tons, 4 tobacco barns, 35,000 lbs. capacity; 2 tenant houses, dairy barn for 30 cows, 90-ton silo, stables, cribs, colonial mansion, house of 19 rooms, the finest residence in the whole valley. The farm has no superior in the county and is wonderfully attractive. It is seldom that lands in this productive valley are for sale and many could not be bought for $300 per acre. Price $160 per acre, is worth $260 and more; terms. Views of mansion furnished to party desirous of purchasing. Address P. F. Swing, Milford, Clermont county, Ohio.

RED CROSS MAKES FINANCIAL REPORT ON INFLUENZA FUND

Officers of Mason County Red Cross Show Expenditures Made During the Influenza Epidemic.

The following is the final report of the Mason County Chapter, American Red Cross showing the receipts and expenditures handled by it and disposition thereof, during recent influenza epidemic, to-wit:

Receipts
Total cash donations	$391.65
225 chickens; 40 lbs. butter;
45 dozen eggs; 45 gallons milk; several baskets of fruit and numerous contributions of vegetables.
Expenditures
Caproni Bros.	$ 3.50
Central Market	19.15
Geisel & Conrad	6.87
W. T. Cummins	14.20
Merz Brothers	111.90
L. M. Cavendish	8.45
New York Store	95.30
R. L. Hoeflich	57.90
Schatzmann Bros.	5.85
Electric Shop	1.50
D. Hunt & Son	11.76
Cash purchases	12.25
Balance to Treasury, local Red Cross	43.02
Total	$391.65

The balance on hand, $43.02, has been turned into the treasury, local Red Cross Chapter, for future emergency cases. The blankets, sheets and other equipment purchased by us and used in this emergency will be carefully retained for future emergencies; it being the policy and principle of the Red Cross Society to render aid wherever and as often as public necessity may call for it; and, to that end it is our purpose to continue the activities of the Mason County Chapter.

Names of the parties making above donations were previously reported in local press. The donations were from twenty-five cents up to twenty-five dollars, and were voluntarily and cheerfully given, and each donor expressed a willingness to give more, if it should be needed; again proving the generosity, high character and true christian spirit of our ever reliable people; to all of whom we return our most sincere and lasting thanks.

Most of the provisions and materials were used at the emergency hospital provided by the county and city; but considerable was used among the sufferers in various parts of the county, and none were neglected that we were given a chance to serve. It is not the policy of the Red Cross to pay for individual services, and therefore, no part of above mentioned donations were so used. All personal services rendered, being without charge or cost and to the officers of the various Mason County branch chapters, the solicitors and Mrs. M. H. E. French, who so efficiently served as chairman of the work, we return our especial thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
Mason County Chapter, American Red Cross.
By J. N. KEHOE, Chairman.

The past few days have been splendid weather for the stripping of tobacco and it is reported that the farmers in this county and the adjoining counties have been putting the weed in order rapidly which proves the opinion of local tobacco men that there will be full floors on most every sale as soon as the Maysville Market opens and that the sales will be fast.

Mr. Jesse Grover, aged 21, of Augusta and Miss Bessie Lee Smithson, of Germantown, were granted marriage license this afternoon by County Clerk Owens. They will be married at the bride's parents Saturday by Rev. J. A. Davis, pastor of the Two Lick Baptist Church.

Mr. Rollie Lancaster, who met with a rather serious accident on the C. & O. railroad trestle Wednesday evening, is reported as improving nicely at the home of his father in the Sixth Ward.

Mrs. Rev. C. M. Humphrey of Lagrange, Ky., who has been visiting her brother, Rev. J. J. Dickey, left yesterday for Flemingsburg to visit relatives before returning home.

GEORGE MILLS IS MARCHING THROUGH AUSTRIA FROM ITALY

Maysville Man With Allied Forces on the Italian Front Writes Very Interesting Letter to His Mother Telling of Experiences.

Mrs. George W. Davis of Forest avenue, has just received the following letter from her son, George Mills, one of the few Mason county boys on the Italian front:

Somewhere in Austria, Nov. 17, 1918.

My Dear Mother:

Well mother dear I guess you think it has been a rather long time since you heard from me, but this is the first letter I have wrote for over three weeks. Yes, we have been real busy and besides it has not always been convenient for us to write and get the mail out, but better late than never. Yes we have moved several miles since I last wrote to you, and I guess you have noticed in the papers how busy we have been and it has been real hard on all of us but everything came out in our favor, so I am sure we were well paid for our work, as the Austrians did not last long after they started to retreat, so we can all be thankful that we are still living and it seems as though as far as to the fighting game, the end has come, so if good luck remains with Ludwell and I, we will return, of course we have no idea when, as it will take some time to move us all back, but I expect to be back anywhere from one to six months. Yes this leaves me in good health. Sorry you could not send the woolen articles to me, but I will make good use of them when I return. Real nice of Mabel to send you the sweater.

Real sorry you all have not been well, but you were lucky to recover from the Spanish influenza, so take real good care of yourself. Well we received a lot of mail this a. m. I got three letters from you and two packages of papers and I got two letters from Mabel and she said she was just recovering from the Spanish influenza. Read a twenty page letter from Dutch Bloomsburg, real interesting and I got a nice letter from Brother Stahl and a number of others. Tell Mr. Davis I said hello and to take good care of himself. Well I guess the home place does look real nice since you fixed things up; well as long as I was satisfied I would not sell. No I have not heard from Ludwell lately and have had no chance to write him but he is o. k. I am sure. Don't worry when you do not hear from us as often as usual as we will write as often as we can.

Well mother I guess you have received the draft by this time. Tell Joe Newell many thanks for remembering me. Well mother nothing else worth writing so I will close for this time, trusting this will find you all enjoying good health and to hear from you real soon. Good-bye.

Lovingly your son,
GEORGE.

MANDATORY POWERS OVERRIVER ASKED FOR I. S. COMMISSION

Ohio Valley Improvement Association Closes Annual Meeting—Next Session at Paducah.

Louisville, Ky., December 13—Raising of funds with which to carry on the work of the association next year and re-election of all the present officers, featured the closing session of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association yesterday, which followed the adoption of the report of the Committee on Resolutions.

Delegates to the convention pledged subscriptions amounting to $6,250 with many towns not reporting.

It is believed that when all the reports have been received a total of $10,000 will be subscribed for work of the association.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read by Joseph Burge, Chairman, at the morning session, and after discussion, led by Albert Bettinger, of Cincinnati, unanimously was adopted.

The resolution, after pointing to the great delay in Ohio River improvement work, expressed the hope that the present Congress will recognize the justice of the case of these improvement projects by making such appropriations as will permit the full completion of the project work by 1922, the date set for the fulfillment of all improvement plans.

The resolutions recite the good that will result from the further improvement of the Ohio River and recommend that Congress amend legislation fixing the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission so that jurisdiction by that body over waterways transportation will be mandatory instead of permissive.

The resolutions favor the early completion of all works on the lower Ohio as a means of giving employment to returned soldiers, and point out that full utilization of the river route will solve many of the coal and transportation problems which have developed during the war.

The convention voted to hold the twenty-fifth annual meeting at Paducah next December.

ONLY FIVE MORE NEEDED TO COMPLETE BOYS' BAND

Forty Boys Have Already Become Members of the Maysville Boys' Band and Their Instruments Are Being Ordered.

The Maysville Boys' Band may be able to give its first public concert on Washington's birthday, if everything moves along as smoothly within the next few days as it has in the past.

Already forty boys have become members of the organization and only five more are needed to complete the main organization but there will be an auxiliary band in which the boys of the community will be trained and from which they will be elevated to the band proper. It is expected that there will be many enrolled in the auxiliary band.

Many of the youngsters have already had their instruments ordered and for the most part the boys have been persuaded to purchase the best instruments obtainable so that they will last them a life time and so that they will have instruments of which they can be proud.

The Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the band is very proud of the progress made thus far and these gentlemen announce that Maysville will soon again have a band that will bring us as much advertisement as did the famous old Maysville Band of years ago.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

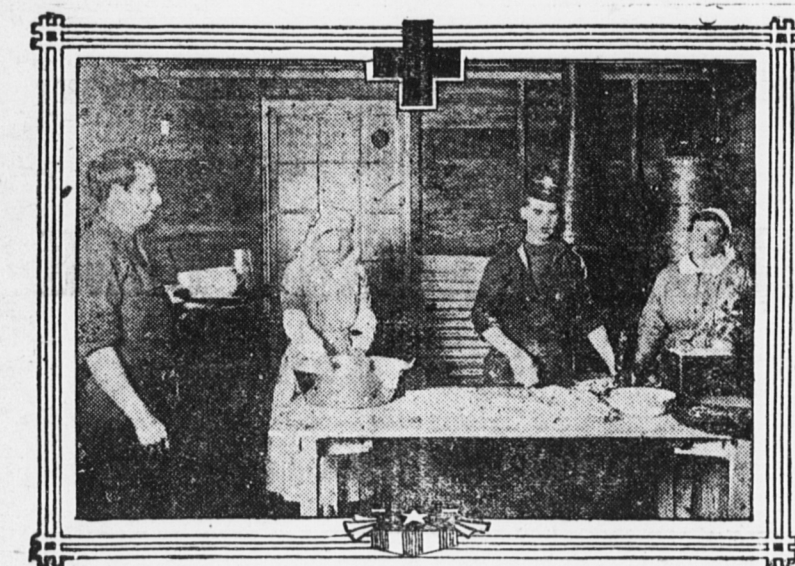

HOW THEY MUST HAVE LOVED HIM

Complete revelation of German bribery and attempted bribery and arson in this country, as related in testimony given by A. Bruce Belaski, and recounted in the telegraphic news of yesterday, climax with startling distinctness matters of which the public already had had more than a mere inkling. These revelations, growing out of a Senate investigation of the sale of the Washington Times to Arthur Brisbane, go far beyond this subject and cover every phase of German propaganda in the United States and Mexico, involving many wealthy foreigners and not a few Americans supposed to be above contamination of this sort. It is shown in Belaski's report to the Senate that the State Department and the Department of Justice were never far behindhand in knowledge of these transactions, and the wonder is that the Administration was able to suppress so many startling facts which, had they been made public at the time, would have caused more than a sensation. Bernstorff, for example, had his crimes been known beforehand, never could have made the peaceful and unperturbed exit that he was permitted to make.

We can now clearly see that the form of the declaration made on April 6, 1917, which did not declare war, but merely recognized that through Germany's acts a state of war has been created, was entirely logical. Germany had long been waging war on us when we shot back. Imagine how an honest man like Secretary Lansing must have felt as Bernstorff crawled about! How strong must have been the impulse to kick him downstairs.

To what degree were the men sincere who now say they had no idea of how they were being used and how they were ticketed on secret German archives? If we acquit them of conscious dishonor they must be convicted of a stupidity rare among men of their class. It is safe to say that the majority knew what they were doing.

Now another propaganda is on in this country. The Bolsheviks seized the billion dollar gold store of Russia. Where is this money now and what is it doing? It is known much of it has come out of Russia, and, bound west, has passed through Sweden.

DIET KITCHEN OF AMERICAN RED CROSS IN FRANCE. HEALING WOUNDS OF WAR BIGGEST JOB OF RED CROSS Broken Homes and Men Must Be Rebuilt—Re-education of Disabled Soldiers for Future Usefulness.

They are already rebuilding the broken homes of France. And they are already rebuilding the broken men. Over here we, too, are getting ready to devote to the same task the best of American skill and genius.

For each million of our men who enter action ten thousand will be so crippled as to need mechanical appliances, and they will have to be specially educated to use these so that the action of the missing limbs will be reduplicated as closely as possible.

If the Germans had had the entire to certain parts of France last fall they might have seen fields that they once destroyed yielding their best crop in years. And they might have seen some of these fields being reaped by men they thought they had done for. They were men with varying degrees of leglessness and armlessness. Some ran (and repaired) tractor engines. Some, with both arms gone above the elbows, spaded the ground with the aid of a clever mechanism to which the spade was hooked. One man, who also had but the stump of each arm left, not only used a scythe but kept it sharp.

The Red Cross is running a five-hundred acre farm in France on which the maimed are taught the use of farm implements and the care of domestic animals, and is already laying its plans for great work for the maimed in this country. The end and aim of all its work will be to fit men to return to their own homes, and re-enter, as nearly as possible, their former place in life.

Sometimes these re-educated men take a far higher place in the community than they occupied before. For instance, men who have been automobile mechanics, and whose legs were mutilated, have been re-educated in mechanical drafting. Bridge workmen have made similar advances. A Canadian mechanic who was maimed and afterward re-educated became a foreman at more than double his former pay. It was only their seeming misfortunes that opened for these men the opportunity to secure the education their talents merited.

The Red Cross sends out a strong warning against mistaken kindness toward the maimed men who are even now returning. If, it says, the public insists on making lions of these men, it will end by making them babies. If employers hunt through their plants for "snaps" for them, and give them jobs that mean little more than holding down stools and reminding about their daring deeds, then indeed we shall complete the work of destruction for them, maiming minds as well as bodies.

We, the American people, are going to be asked to spend more time, more money and energy keeping these men in the game than it would cost to merely support and amuse them and let it go at that. We must make them special harnesses, actually and metaphorically, and then have patience while they are getting adjusted to it. And we must see that they have their chances at suitable employments.

But these men are going to have something more than just marvelous appliances that will enable them to do almost any kind of work. These men's tremendous sacrifices won't be paid back by letting them in on life's work, but not its social game. So they are going to have Sunday arms and legs as well as the work-a-day wonders! A man with both hands gone may, with perfectly molded fingers, light his own cigarette or play cards. And a man with his face so ravaged that his best friend could not restrain a shudder may wear, over the disfigured part, a mask that is perfect and delicate, a work of art and science.

MAY RECLAIM LAND OF KENTUCKY OFFICIALS THINK

Government May Reclaim Certain Land in Kentucky For Soldiers' Occupancy.

Assistance in ascertaining the area of land in Kentucky that might be reclaimed for occupancy by soldiers after the war is to be rendered by the Louisville Board of Trade to the United States Reclamation Service.

An outline of the project is to be prepared and printed by the Board of Trade, and together with a questionnaire, is to be sent to various county chairmen, county clerks, agricultural agents and railway industrial agents. Furthermore, the State College of Agriculture is to be requested to send a representative through likely territory for the purpose of securing options.

This action on the part of the Board of Trade follows a visit here of H. B. Griffith, representing the United States Reclamation Service. He asked the Board of Trade to take up the matter of securing data as to the area that might be available through options to the Government.

Secretary Morrow called into consultation Capt. Charles F. Hughlein, president of the B. F. Avery & Sons Company; Dr. Fred Mutchler of the State Department of Agricultural Extension, and the Industrial agents of the L. & N. and Southern Railways. It was the belief of these gentlemen that there are a considerable number of areas in Kentucky, particularly in Western Kentucky, subject to reclamation, although for the most part these are not areas as extensive as the minimum specified for the Government as being acceptable for purchase.

Mr. Griffith has since been in Washington, where the question as to whether the Government would consider tracts of less than 10,000 acres was to be discussed.

FIUME GOVERNOR DEPOSED BY ITALIAN GENERAL

Rome, December 13.—Arnaldo Fracaro describes the dramatic deposition and departure of Croat governor of Fiume in the Corriere della Sera. General Sammarzani disembarked at Fiume on November 17 and went straight to the palace of the governor.

Arriving there he was introduced to the executive office of Count Richard Lenace, governor of the city, and noticed at once that portrait of Emperor Francis Joseph and of Charles I. were still hanging on the wall.

"I have come," the general said, "in the name of Italy to assume command of the city and maintain order."

Lenace answered: "As the representative of the Jugo-Slav national council, I protest against this usurpation of authority."

I will not discuss the question," General Sammarzani replied. "I am a soldier and must carry out my orders. You must clear out."

"I yield to force," Lenace answered, "but enter a protest."

To this General Sammarzani retorted: "Do as you please about that; but you must go away."

As soon as Count Lenace left the palace the portraits of the two emperors were cast into the fire.

GLASS WAS EDUCATED IN NEWS-PAPER OFFICE

Representative Carter Glass, of Virginia has been appointed and confirmed to succeed Mr. McAdoo as Secretary of the U. S. Treasury. He is now chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency and was the author of the Federal Reserve Banking law. He owns two daily papers, at Lynchburg, Va. The following sketch of his early career may be interesting:

The new Secretary of the Treasury is a self-made man. When 13 years old he closed his books at school, obtained a job as printer's devil on a newspaper at Lynchburg and has been working "in the trenches" ever since. Mr. Glass never entered a college or university, not even a public high school, until he had achieved prominence in Virginia, and then it was to make a speech. His education, he has always said, was obtained while serving as a printer in a newspaper office.

Flattery is often misdirected. A man only flatters himself when he thinks he can liquidate a debt by paying compliments.

TOAST TO THE U. S. AND ALLIED COUNTRIES

(By Mrs. Edna Webster Core)
Here's to our country, the best of all. For America, the flag forever shall wave,

And many more lives would be willing to fall

For the "Good old U. S. A." to save. To the mother country so dignified. Let us send over our brilliant light; Many comforts and lives she's been denied,

But stood calmly through all the fight. Now to France, the shining star, Quite bravely we see her from afar. And to Italy, sunny Italy we turn, Whose fire long years shall burn.

To the dear little nation so sorely abused,

We gladly adorn with the sweetest of sweets,

Of her no one would dare accuse, But Belgium, fair Belgium, every one greets.

To all these countries whose blood was shed,

Caused by the lust of a beastly tribe, Over them we hoist the emblem of the blue, white and red.

And stand firm as the nations, the hun cannot bribe.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

NATIONAL CHAIN OF COMMUNITY FORUMS FOR CONSIDERATION

Nation-wide System of Popular Lyceums Being Organized by National Security League

New York, December 13.—To stimulate public interest in the pressing problems involved in the readjustment of the affairs of the nation to a peace basis, and to provide an opportunity for the participation of all the people in the discussion of reconstruction measures, the National Security League announces today that it has taken the first steps in the organization of a nation-wide system of "National Security Community Forums". Bodies of wide-awake citizens in cities and towns, large and small, throughout the country will be gathered together by the League much on the plan of the lyceums well-known in rural districts. The League will perfect the organizations of the "Forums" through the medium of its 231 branches, scattered in all the states.

The attention of the "Forums" will first be directed toward a discussion of the seven basic post-war activities of the National Security League, as set forth in the recent announcement of the reorganization of the League's work, viz:—

- (1) Urging a just and careful peace treaty.
- (2) Steadying the nation by a great propaganda for the maintenance of the principles of freedom, justice, law and liberty.
- (3) Following up the post-bellum needs of sympathy and recognition of the soldier wounded.
- (4) Creating a just administration of law regarding naturalization.
- (5) Teaching the meaning and value of our Constitution and the maintenance of our national integrity.
- (6) Creating a greater regard for representative government, as distinguished from mass administration. Protecting our national legislature from dangerous proletarians.
- (7) Maintaining a campaign for the use of the English language by all citizens and permanent residents.

Col. Charles E. Lydecker, President

Sister's fellow told me girls don't have to cook now. Sis feeds him of the Security League, sets forth the League's plan in the following letter sent by him today to the Chairman and Secretaries of the League's 281 branches.

POST TOASTIES

"The general labor of enlightenment in the nature of educational work in our various schools and institutions of learning on the subject of Universal Military Instruction and Training, securing the election of representative and able men for our legislators, securing the broadest comprehension of the ideals of the government, the meaning and value of our Constitution and the preservation of our national integrity, and other topics, are matters of propaganda which can emanate only from one center. More discussion of these subjects in the various localities, however, would help the work of the League.

"The suggestion has been made of the creation of 'National Security Community Forums' where these general subjects could be presented to the citizens of your vicinity and those of other branches. It is perfectly clear that local activities must depend upon local leaders in local communities. Twenty-five men imbued with the purposes of the League and anxious for its success in carrying out its aims, are worth more than five hundred men who passively stand by and watch what others are doing instead of bearing their share of the burden.

"We would wish that these twenty-five men would rally twenty-five times their number but they alone could work wonders in their respective fields.

"The League will do its best to furnish the literature and other help to carry out this suggestion. What is the situation in your community and among your thoughtful men? May I ask that you will give this letter your careful attention from the stand-point of advancing the interest of the League in its work and of enlarging the membership of the League."

In further discussing the post-war program of the League, Col. Lydecker said today.

"As a consequence of the Great War, the world has become, at the termination thereof and the triumph of the principle of popular government over autocratic, or class, supremacy, a seething, tumultuous number of separate groups, or peoples, who are entering upon, or are engaged in, trying to find themselves.

"This National is one of those groups, and reforms, reconstruction, revision and readjustments are of necessity the task of men of thought, ability and influence.

"There is the need today, as in the days of our Revolution, of men like Franklin, Adams, Jefferson, Jay and their associates, men who have some knowledge of progress, but who are wise enough to cling to the fundamental truths which time and experience have shown to be necessary for public welfare, and not to be swept from their feet.

"This organization as an agent for National Security, Safety and Prosperity, has passed the peak of its first task of teaching preparedness, and now, having practically finished its exhortation to war for a peace with victory, has had to determine the national tasks in which it can maintain its influence and lay out the activities in which it shall labor.

"To accomplish the ends outlined, the League must be both aggressive and conservative, always right in whatever stand it takes, and always securing the approval of its members.

"To carry into effect the prospective activities, committees have been created. No general committee on "Reconstruction" has been included for the reason that this word comprehends the entire field of readjustment, which is multitudinous. Every subject admits of separate consideration, and the time is not ripe to enter into the subjects which will be controlled by the Terms of Peace."

A FOOD QUESTIONNAIRE

1. Why doesn't the government do something about prices?

The law gives no authority to fix any price to the producer except wheat. The Food Administration provides against profiteering by manufacturers, wholesalers, or jobbers and provides against waste and speculation in the main channels of trade; 815 penalties were enforced in 10 months by the Food Administration. The Administration points out a method of fixing fair prices by local committees. Each community must police its retail prices, and nobody else can.

2. Why doesn't the government lay down a schedule of rations?

There is no schedule of rations that will suit all people. There is one necessary portion for a coal heaver and another for a retired clergyman; one for a boy with hollow legs and another for a young salesman, another for a middle aged accountant. The mother who feeds four children, sweeps, cooks, sews, scrubs, and works in the garden cannot live on what would suffice for the dear old lady with folded hands. What is an abundance on a Florida piazza would be famine for a lumberjack where it's 20 below.

3. How can every household work out a wise and patriotic ration?

The ration must be set by every household and by every individual according to age, occupation, activity, and residence. Finding the ration for each home and person requires intelligent study of food values and advice from those who know how much nutrition is in each sort of food and how much it takes to keep going.

4. Why not compulsory rations?

The success of America's great democratic experiment of Food Saving on the volunteer basis, as compared with partial failure of all compulsory schemes, is the best answer.

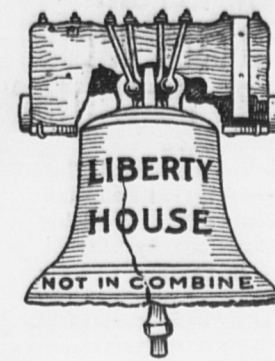

COUNTY BAN MAY BE LIFTED SOON

If the conditions continue to improve in the next few days as they have in the past few, it is more than likely that the County Health officers will begin considering lifting the ban in the county. It is certain, however, that the ban will not be lifted in time for county churches to have services on the coming Sunday.

THESE TWIN SHALL LIVE FOR YEA

Washington, December 13.—The Republican Publicity Association, thru its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington Headquarters:

"The very brief and incomplete account of the demonstrative welcome given Premier Clemenceau and Marshal Foch by the people of London is an indication of that wide-spread recognition and hearty appreciation of the vitally important part taken by these two men in the conflict which has so fortunately closed. Given the chance, Americans will manifest similar recognition and appreciation though in that more enthusiastic manner characteristic of the American people. One of the first acts of Congress should be the adoption of a Joint Resolution inviting Clemenceau and Foch to visit the United States as the guests of the nation in order that our people may express their gratitude for leadership which saved the world from the ravages of the barbarous Hun.

"Good Old Tiger," the cry given in the streets of London as an expression of admiration for Clemenceau, is one we shall be pleased to adopt in this country. We shall claim the privilege of coining one of our own for Foch. From Maine to California and from Key West to Puget Sound the American people will delight to manifest, in every way Yankee ingenuity can devise, their unbounded appreciation of statesmanship and military skill which united the Allied resources in the tremendous task of staying the most powerful military machine ever constructed for aggressive war.

"We shall pay tribute to the statesmanship and courage of Clemenceau and the fighting prowess of Foch not merely because of their personal contribution to the winning of the war but also because they stand as representatives of the French people to whom in equal degree credit must be given for the salvation of twentieth century civilization. Nor shall we neglect to express in appropriate manner our full understanding of the part taken in the conflict by the courageous Belgians and the Italians. We shall not forget that in 1914 Belgium could have bought peace and prosperity at the price of her honor. But neither shall we forget that it was France and her people who bore the brunt of the war, who suffered most in loss of men and property, in personal indignity and industrial ruin. We shall not forget that while we were turning deaf ears to the pleas of suffering humanity, our battles were being fought on the fields of France chiefly by men who marched under the tri-color and that to them more than to any others we owe our present relief from the menace of the Prussian heel.

"Nor shall we forget that to Clemenceau's sagacity, insistence and courage is due the credit for appointing Ferdinand Foch as commander in chief of the Allied forces. History will write Clemenceau as the great dominating spirit of the war and Foch as the great military genius of the century and quite probably of the ages.

"Come on Clemenceau, come on Foch; Good old Tiger, Good old Fighter."

WILL ENFORCE DOG LAW

The following letter from Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen to County Clerk J. J. Owens, will explain itself:

County Clerk J. J. Owens, Dear Sir: Replying to yours of November 30, in which you ask in case a man should come to the office between the 5th and 10th of January and ask to have license issued him for his dog or dogs whether or not you should issue or refuse to do so by closing your books as required by the act of January 1, beg to advise that the law states specifically and emphatically that all dogs must be licensed on or before January 1, 1919, and after that date should any owner who has listed his dog, or who owns a dog asks to have same licensed, you should immediately swear a warrant for him for the violation of this act, or else notify the Sheriff with a written notice to the effect in order that the Sheriff may proceed to carry out the provision of this act.

I say to you frankly this law is put on the statute books to be enforced, and you may say to your people that it is going to be enforced regardless of who the violator may be.

If the department can serve you further in this or any other matter only command believe me. Yours truly,

MAT S. COHEN,
Commissioner of Agriculture.

TO THE PUBLIC

As the money collected on dogs goes now to the sheep fund (the old law being repealed) it is very important that, every one owning dogs please call at the County Clerk's office and take out license on same. Should you know of any persons having dogs, upon which no license has been paid, and you wish to collect something for the sheep that have been killed, it is your duty as a citizen to report the same to the Sheriff, for if these license are not collected, there will be no fund from which sheep claims are to be paid.

SENATE AGAINST PLAN TO EXTEND RAILWAY CONTROL

Democrats and Republicans Both Express Disapproval of Director's Proposal—Test of Government Ownership, Is Claim.

Washington, December 13—Recommendation of director-general McAdoo that government control of railroads be continued to January 1, 1924, gave impetus yesterday to Congressional consideration of legislation looking to a solution of the railway problem and also was the subject of brief debate in the Senate.

The Senate interstate commerce commission was called to meet next Thursday to discuss Mr. McAdoo's letter and other phases of the general railroad subject, while the House committee will meet today with the exception that the Director-General's recommendation will be taken up.

Aside from the opposition voiced by Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, Republican, on the floor of the Senate yesterday, many members, both Republicans and Democrats, were said to have expressed disapproval of Mr. McAdoo's proposal, but none of them spoke for publication.

Senator Kellogg, charged that Mr. McAdoo really proposes a five year test looking to permanent government ownership of the carriers, and added that if government control is extended for five years it would be impossible to return the roads back to private ownership.

Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, declared that Mr. McAdoo's proposal was merely a personal opinion, probably of unusual weight but not conclusive upon Congress, to which President Wilson has submitted the question.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC SEEMS TO HAVE SPENT ITS FORCE

Only Two New Cases of the Disease in Maysville Yesterday—County Conditions Are Much Better.

Influenza seems to have spent its force in Maysville and Mason county according to the reports made daily by the physicians to County Health Officer J. S. Locke. Report filed yesterday show that during the day there had been but 8 new cases two of these were in the city while six were in the county.

This report greatly encouraged the health authorities as it shows that the steady decline of the past few days is being kept up and that the city is now practically beyond its spread.

The County report is especially encouraging. The condition in the city of Maysville has been very encouraging for several weeks but in the county there have been many new cases each day. The report that there were but six new cases in the county yesterday conclusively shows the health authorities that the disease has been throttled in both city and county.
